About

Serval wildlife is a wildlife sanctuary like no other. Unlike the traditional methods of viewing wildlife such as game drives or hot air balloon safaris this experience allows you to approach the wildlife by foot with a local guide. You get an opportunity to get up close and personal with animals by feeding them, petting them and taking pictures with them in a carefully monitored way that is trusted and with experienced keepers that prioritize safety.

Several wildlife is located in the Kilimanjaro area of Siha District close to Mount Kilimanjaro and is the only upmarket eco-tourism positioned in Kilimanjaro. You will see a perfectly managed ecosystem with over 3000 hand-planted unique varieties of flora and the view of Mount Kilimanjaro and Mount Meru as you traverse the sanctuary's picturesque landscape. Throughout the day, you'll have the opportunity to participate in guided walks to see a variety of animals currently living in the sanctuary including: Lions, Giraffes, Zebras, Wildebeest, kudu, birds and more all while being surrounded by the sights and sounds of the African wilderness.

You will have an hour to spend with the wildlife, where you can:

- ▶ Feed them
- ▶ Take their picture
- ▶ Pet them

Maasai Vilage Visit & Kikuletwa Hot Springs

MAASAI VILLAGE

Also referred to as Kambi ya Chokaa is an authentic village founded by the local Maasai. During this visit, will have a chance to mingle with the Maasai and chat with them, but your social skills and creativity will determine how much they open up to you.

Your guide will assist you to navigate around them, as the Maasai themselves do not speak any other languages expect KiMaasai (their local language). Whilst you walk through the village with your guide, you will learn more about the culture of the Maasai, a lesson on traditional Maasai medicine and the opportunity to taste the local Maasai tea.

KIKULETWA HOT SPRINGS

Also known as Maji Moto and also Chemka Hot Springs, is a natural geothermal oasis. Chemka means "boiling" in Swahili, referring to the appearance of how the water emerges from the ground. The hot spring waters flow into the Kikuletwa River and eventually find its way to the Pangani River.

The crystal clear, turquoise waters invite you for a refreshing swim. Although called a hot spring, water in Kikuletwa is not hot, but rather refreshing since the water source is from the Kilimanjaro Mountain itself.

After enjoying a swim, we will have a picnic lunch and relax, then we return to Moshi.

Location

Located in Masama Rundugai ward of Hai District in the Kilimanjaro region of Tanzania. The hot springs are located approximately 40 kilometers from the town of Moshi, which is a gateway to Mount Kilimanjaro in a village called Chemka.

Attraction

The Kikuletwa Hot Springs are certainly one of the most beautiful places in Tanzania - the hot springs are surrounded by fig and palm trees and winding roots - a real hidden paradise. It is also surrounded by various bird species and vegetation of which mostly dominated by hyphaene species. The Maasai village visit and experiences.
